Lancaster Event Center celebrates 15th Anniversary with a shindig on Thursday, May 12th

Lincoln, NE— Lancaster Event Center – which hit an all-time high number of events held in 2015 – is celebrating its 15th year of hosting the annual county Super Fair and now over 270 events per year with a 2016 Super Fair fundraiser & 15th Anniversary “Shindig” on Thursday, May 12th that the public is invited to attend. The event will be highlighted with a ribbon cutting sponsored by the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce at 3pm near the 84th Street sign to celebrate recent extensive remodeling completed last Friday funded by Lancaster County Visitors Improvement Fund.

Immediately following in the newly remodeled Lincoln Room, the 15th Anniversary Shindig will kickoff with welcome remarks from:

- Ron Dowding, Lancaster County Ag Society President
- Roma Anderson, Lancaster County Board of Commissioners Chair
- Amy Dickerson, Lancaster Event Center Managing Director

Then, enjoy live music by Tuna Fish Jones and some tasty new items from our food and beverage menu for $10/person all you can eat with one beverage. An incredible number of local organizations have made generous item donations to support the Lancaster County Super Fair that will be available in both silent and live auctions including: Husker tickets, Saltdog tickets, a firepit, a $400 equipment rental, hotel stays and numerous gift cards. There will also be visual exhibits with expert hosts outlining our 15-year history, our community and economic impact, the master plan updates, and the new attractions at this year’s Super Fair. Great information on how we make a difference in Lincoln!

Hope to see you there!
